

END OF YEAR SELF-EVALUATION

As a person and a leader, it is your job to self-reflect from time to time, looking at the things you've done well and the things you can do to improve.

Self-evaluation can be hard — but it can also show you how you are progressing.

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10
I cannot read notes I can read notes a little I can read notes very well

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10
I cannot read rhythm I can read rhythm a little I can read rhythm very well

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10
I cannot play my instrument I can play my instrument a little I can play my instrument very well

Are you glad you decided to learn an instrument? Why? _____

What did you enjoy the most about this year? _____

If you could change one thing about your participation this year, what would it be?

What are two things you are proud of that you did well this year?

1. _____ 2. _____

What are two things you could have done better?

1. _____ 2. _____

Give yourself a grade in this class and justify your answer:

Grade Justification: _____

List two things you learned about leadership this year:

1. _____ 2. _____

Name your favorite part about this music class: _____

Name one thing you would like to see changed about this music class:

Please share your final thoughts about this music and leadership journey:

Actual Grade Justification: _____

